EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

Inventorship

1. This application currently names joint inventors. In considering patentability of the claims under 35 U.S.C. 103(a), the examiner presumes that the subject matter of the various claims was commonly owned at the time any inventions covered therein were made absent any evidence to the contrary. Applicant is advised of the obligation under 37 CFR 1.56 to point out the inventor and invention dates of each claim that was not commonly owned at the time a later invention was made in order for the examiner to consider the applicability of 35 U.S.C. 103(c) and potential 35 U.S.C. 102(e), (f) or (g) prior art under 35 U.S.C. 103(a).
2. An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

Authorization for this examiner's amendment was given in a telephone interview with Kirk A. Vander Leest. (Reg. No. 34,036) on January 28, 2008.

The amendment has been changed following:

Non-elected claims 1-25 and 45-46 have been canceled.

Reasons for Allowance

3. Claims 26-44 are allowed.
4. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

The prior art fails to disclose or render obvious the claimed combination including estimating initial data, said initial data comprising an initial cylinder pressure and an initial intake flow, calculating said output data using said system data and a converged cylinder pressure and a converged intake flow wherein said initial data used to: provide said converged cylinder pressure from said initial cylinder pressure, and provide said converged intake flow from said initial intake flow.

5. Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
